

NOW SEEING CONSULTATIONS NEAR COLUMBIA, SOUTH CAROLINA

In order to make dentistry referral more accessible to your patients and clients, The Hospital for Veterinary Dentistry and Oral Surgery is excited to announce that we will be seeing consultations at a satellite location near Columbia, SC.

Dr. Katherine Queck, DVM, FAVD, DAVDC and her resident, Dr. Gillian Pantone, DVM, will be seeing referral only consultations out of Cherokee Trail Animal Hospital, located at 109 Palmetto Park Blvd. #7856, Lexington, SC 29072.

We appreciate and value the referral of your patients to our dentists for care. We believe that the referring veterinarian is essential to our practice. Your client and patient will be treated by our experienced dentists and the well-trained technical team traveling with them. No services other than dentistry will be performed on your patient. Please trust that your client and patient may not become general practice clients of Cherokee Trail Animal Hospital.

If you have a patient that you would like to refer for consultation, please contact us at 704-817-9896 or visit us at www.hvdos.com to fill out an online form.

We appreciate your referrals and look forward to working together with you to provide the best dental care for your patients.
